Four bedroom detached home located on a generous plot with a large garden and swimming pool

€1,195,000

 Berkshire, South East

Lion House is a modern four bedroom detached home, located on a generous plot of just under half an acre. The property was originally built in c.1927 and has since been improved by the current owners and previously extended to create a great family home. The extensive rear garden is a fantastic feature, which also includes a heated swimming
